

FOR PRESIDENT,

BENJAMIN HARRISON OF INDIANA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

LEVI P. MORTON
OF NEW YORK.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

[From our regular correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31, 1888.

Senator Stewart is after the General land office with a vengeance. He does not believe that the affairs of that office are as well conducted as they should be, and he has offered a resolution calling upon the Secretary of the Interior for information as to the land suits, land patents, and timber depredations. It is opposed by the Democrats on the ground that it will cost too much to prepare the statement, but Senator Stewart will probably insist on having his resolution passed.

The House has passed the bill requiring all Government securities to be printed in the highest style of art, on hand presses.

The Republican Senators held a caucus last night to consider the tariff bill, Cleveland's bombastic message, and general legislation. It is probable that the Republicans will agree to pass a resolution which will give Cleveland all the authority for which he asks in order to retaliate upon Canada for its treatment of our fishermen and other interests, although they believe that the joint resolution, passed more than eighteen months ago, gave him all the authority for which he now asks. But it is not at all likely that he will do anything; in issuing his message he has accomplished the only object he had in view—trying to hold the Irish vote for the Democratic party. The intelligent Irishmen of this country are not, however, likely to be caught by anything as transparent as Cleveland's message.

The pleasant little fiction known as "civil service reform," which was so popular in the early days of the present pinchbeck administration, has been entirely laid aside, and every office holder is expected to put his hand in his pocket and his shoulder to the wheel to help re-elect the great (in weight) and good (when he cannot be otherwise) Grover Cleveland.

It is given out that Cleveland has contributed $10,000 to the Democratic campaign fund. This is probably a lie, but it will have the effect extended—that of making the small fry officials come down with the cash. It is also said that Postmaster General Dickinson has given $10,000, Secretary Vilas the same amount and Secretary Whitney $25,000.

Office holders are making stump speeches all over the country; but of course, it is not "pernicious activity" to work for Cleveland.

The country has been nauseated with constantly hearing of "Democratic economy" during the past two or three years. Senator Allison has shown this week, in a speech in the Senate, that it has cost the people just $95,000,000 more to run the Government under a Democratic administration.

No claim that has ever been put forward by the Democratic party for the confidence of the people of this country will stand the test of common sense and mathematics.

Senator Plumb, from the committee on appropriations, has reported the fortification bill to the Senate. It appropriates $5,322,000, and there is also a provision under which $6,000,000 additional may be spent at a rate not exceeding $2,000,000 a year for the purchase of guns.

Senator Allison has exploded the futile attempt of the Democrats of the House to throw the responsibility for the extravagant appropriations which have eaten up the annual surplus for the present fiscal year upon the Republican Senate, because that body added items to the appropriation bills as passed by the House. The House cut down the amounts asked for by the Democratic heads of departments, and the latter went to the Senate with their estimates. That is how the item came to be increased. The Republicans thought that the money had just as well be given them this year in the regular appropriation bills, as to have to pass deficiency bills for the same purpose next year.

Mr. Cleveland refused to attend the Grangers' meeting this week at Williams' Grove, Pa., in order to go on a three days fishing trip to West Virginia.

The House has a quorum this week, but it is extremely doubtful if it can keep it.

Representative Yost of Virginia, made an exhaustive speech in the House Monday in favor of the Blair Educational bill.

Owing to the cowardly tactics adopted by the Democrats, this bill has never been even reported to the House, although it passed the Senate early in the session. R.
